

The Histories of the Morris in Britain

Cecil Sharp House, 2 Regents
Park Road, London NW1 7AY

25–26 March 2017

Morris dance has been an enduring feature of British culture for more than six centuries. To celebrate EFDSS is hosting a two-day conference of presentations, posters and dance, exploring morris dance's evolution and spread from its elusive beginnings until the present day. Themes covered include: Women in Morris; Morris at Court; The Early Revival; Material Culture; The History of History; The Later Revival; The Morris Dark Ages: the 18th Century.

Weekend ticket: £55 • Day ticket: £35

Weekend ticket youth: £40 • Day ticket youth: £25

Saturday evening ceilidh with The Whole Hannekin and caller Andrew Swaine. Tickets £10 / £8 for conference attendees.

For more information and to book tickets, visit www.efdss.org.

---

Organised by The Historical Dance Society in partnership with English Folk Dance and Song Society.

Supported by The Morris Ring, The Morris Federation and Open Morris.

www.historicaldance.org.uk

www.efdss.org